Event Overview:

RICS Thailand is organising a CPD seminar with an objective to give members an understanding about the existing practice and regulations with regard to accounting practice for leases, and will consider the implications of the IASB/FASB proposals in this respect.

About the Speaker:

Sumalee Chokdeeanant holds a Bachelor of Accountancy (Honours) degree from Thammasat University, a Bachelor of Law degree from Sukhothai Thammathiraj University, and a Master of Business Administration from Kasetsart University. She also holds a Certified Public Accountant certificate. Sumalee started her career with a big five audit firm where she spent 5 years and more than 15 years in multinational companies before joining Grant Thornton in 2001 as Audit Services Partner. She leads a team of about 80 auditors in Grant Thornton's Bangkok office. Sumalee also teaches Managerial Accounting at Kasetsart University.
